CITIZENS' REQUESTS

David Hill of 308 Pine Street told Council that a contractor hired by a local business plowed snow up against his fence and explained that it is a six-foot eyesore and may ruin his yard.

Public Works Director Joseph Bush stated he would refer the problem to the Code Officer.

Ken Seybold of 238 Gertrude Street stated his car was blocked in his alley until he snowblowed his way out. He said he was disappointed in the cities snow removal process. He also stated that Gertrude Street should not be a truck route as there is not enough room for a car and truck to pass each other.
